

Centre for World Environmental History (CWEH) and Academia and Activism Forum launch Foil Vedanta's latest report:

'Vedanta's Billions: Regulatory Failure, Environment and Human Rights'

Samarendra Das ; Miriam Rose

Thursday 27 September 2018 2:30pm-4:30pm Room Fulton 203 University of Sussex

The discussion following the launch of the report will describe the rise of the mining corporation Vedanta registered in the City of London, the impact of mining on tribal and local communities in India and Zambia, the environmental costs, and grassroots informed activism which exposed Vedanta's operations in Goa, Tuticorin and Niyamgiri, and resulted in the recent de-listing of the company from the London Stock Market exchange following sustained campaigning.
