

Yugin Teo bio:

Yugin Teo is an associate tutor in the English department at Sussex University. His completed doctoral thesis examined the work of memory in the novels of British writer Kazuo Ishiguro. His research interests are in the representation of memory in literature and film, contemporary fiction, dystopian fiction and film, and the work of the late French thinker Paul Ricoeur.