

CAREERS

Sussex International Development

graduates use their skills & knowledge to make a real difference in many ways & places. Here's what some of our former students are doing now

- Programme monitoring assistant, UNHCR Earthquake Response, Nepal
- Project Officer, Brighton and Hove Community Works
- Young Professional programme, Department for International Development, Bangladesh
- Client Manager, The Thinking Traveller Ltd, UK
- Public Health postgraduate student, Lund University, Sweden
- Senior Research Officer, Oxfam - corporate research and ethical checking
- Communications & Admin Officer, Bhopal Medical Appeal
- Marketing Executive, AAIB Insurance Brokers
- Technical Project Advisor, Salvation Army
- Programme Assistant IDE-UK (International Development Enterprises),
- Events Co-ordinator, Haymarket Publishing, London
- Data journalist, The Times
- Research Analyst, Lafferty Group
- Programme Manager, The School Club, Zambia
- Assistant Economist, HM Treasury
- Consultant, UNIDO (UN Industrial Development Organisation)
- Careers & Progression Team Leader, City College, Brighton & Hove
- Communications Officer, Action Aid
- Policy & Research Co-Ordinator, Save the Children, London
- Consultant - IMA International (training & consultancy for international development)
- Public Information Officer, Organisation for Security and Co-Operation in Europe