

SUSSEX CENTRE FOR INTELLECTUAL HISTORY
SUSSEX CENTRE FOR SOCIAL & POLITICAL THOUGHT

RESISTANCE IN INTELLECTUAL HISTORY AND POLITICAL THOUGHT

University of Sussex, 15th and 16th September 2016

PROGRAMME

All sessions will take place in Jubilee Building, room 144.

Thursday 15th September

2:00-2:15

Iain McDaniel &
Gordon Finlayson (Sussex)

Welcome & introductory remarks

2:15-3:45

Chair: Gordon Finlayson (Sussex)

Sophie Nicholls (Oxford)

Defending 'la patrie': theorists of resistance in the French
Catholic League

Signy Gutnick Allen (York)

Early Modern Punishment and Resistance Rights

3:45-4:15

Coffee break

4:15-5:45

Chair: Sarah Mortimer (Oxford)

Rémy Duthille (Bordeaux)

The English rational dissenters and the duty of resistance

Reidar Maliks (Oslo)

Resistance and revolution in late eighteenth-century
Germany

7:30

Dinner (venue tbc)

Friday 16th September

9:15–10:45	Chair: Andrew Chitty (Sussex)
Iain McDaniel (Sussex)	Resisting the Demos? Resistance and Popular Sovereignty in early nineteenth-century Europe
Julia Nicholls (Oxford)	The Boundaries of Resistance: Revolutionary Thought in Post-Revolutionary France
10:45-11:15	Coffee break
11:15-12:45	Chair: Joanne Paul (Sussex)
Tim Stanton (York)	“and perhaps their Religion too”: resistance and religion from Locke to Barth
Caroline Ashcroft (Cambridge)	Resistance and the Limits of Nonviolence in Arendt’s Political Thought
12:45-1:45	Lunch break
1:45-4:00	Chair: Iain McDaniel (Sussex)
Louiza Odysseos (Sussex)	Human rights and/as counter-conduct: resistance between limited political action and ‘illimitable’ ethical self-formation
Denis Chevrier-Bosseau (Sussex)	Contesting the Present: Nietzsche and Resistance in the Age of Whistleblowers
Lawrence Hamilton (Wits/Cambridge)	Resistance and Radical Democracy: Freedom, Power and Institutions
4:00-4:15	break
4:15-4:45
Concluding remarks	led by Andrew Chitty (Sussex) and Joanne Paul (Sussex)